

Your Calling Sheet

Introduction: Make sure you have worked through pages 213-217 in Funding Your Ministry, answering all the questions and completing all the exercises. Now you are ready to put together the specifics of your personal calling. Put down your expanded version of each of these questions and then tighten it up so that you can give it in three sentences when sharing it on an appointment. You will be sharing this sheet at your Boot Camp. Use a second page if needed.

1. When and how did you become a Christian?

A. Expanded version

B. Three Sentence Version

2. When and how did you first sense a call to full-time Christian ministry?

A. Expanded version

B. Three Sentence Version

3. When and how did God call you to this particular ministry/organization?

A. Expanded version

B. Three Sentence Version

“Vision is what you will seek to achieve within the parameters of your calling. Vision is too crucial to ignore, to squander or to misunderstand.”
